Grand Rapids - The husband of a Kent County woman killed earlier this month has been named a "person of interest" by detectives.

Renee Pagel's body was found inside her Courtland Township home on August 5th.

A death certificate obtained by WZZM 13 news shows she was stabbed to death.

The Kent County Sheriff's Department says Michael Pagel as well as several other's are persons of interest in the case.

The Pagel's were about to finalize their divorce within a few days of the murder.

Renee Pagel's funeral was held Monday.
